

LIEUTENANT (NAVY) C.M. NUCCI

WEAPONS OFFICER, HMCS WINNIPEG

A Hamilton, Ontario native, Lieutenant (Navy) Christopher Michael Nucci joined the Canadian Forces in 1995 as an Armoured Officer under the Regular Officer Training Plan.

In 2000, he transferred to the Navy and moved to Victoria, BC where he earned his bridge watch-keeping ticket on board HMCS Vancouver (2001-2004), and sailed as the Above Water Warfare Officer in HMCS Ottawa (2004-2006) before becoming an instructor at the Naval Officer Training Centre Venture (2006-2007).

In 2008 he completed the Operations Room Officer Course and graduated as the Top Student. In 2009 Lieutenant (Navy) Nucci was posted to HMCS Winnipeg as the Weapons Officer. He was awarded the Commander Canadian Expeditionary Forces Command Commendation for his service during Operation Allied Protector.

Lieutenant (Navy) Nucci is a graduate of the Royal Military College of Canada in Kingston (1999) where he earned an honours degree in Military and Strategic Studies. He lives in Victoria, B.C. and in his spare time he enjoys performing as a disc jockey and studying Italian.